GREEK ORTHODOX ARCHDIOCESE OF AMERICA
METROPOLIS OF CHICAGO

The Archdiocese of Chicago and the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago, Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church, and Saints Peter and Paul Greek Orthodox Church invite you to the ninth annual

Solemn Vespers for the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation

Thursday, August 31, 2023 | 7:00 p.m.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish, 1775 Grove Street,
Glenview, Illinois 60025

Carpools leave from the Saint Anne Parish Center Parking Lot at 5:45 p.m.

All are invited as the Catholic and Greek Orthodox communities of greater Chicagoland join together for an ecumenical service to give thanks for God's gift of creation and to recognize the conservation efforts of His disciples.

Bishop Robert Casey, Vicar General, Archdiocese of Chicago, will preside at this service and is honored to be joined by Fr. Sotirios Malamis, Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago. The Vespers will be followed by a reception and a lecture by Sarah Elizabeth Ippel—

A Chicago Model for Cultivating a Sustainable and Just Future

As a national leader in innovative education and sustainability, Sarah Elizabeth Ippel has dedicated two decades of her life to cultivating the future of learning and thriving communities. Sarah will share an inspiring and actionable vision for integrating health and wellness, environmental justice, multigenerational learning, and economic vitality to drive generational impact. She'll share more about her work with developing a Chicago-based model, Cultivate Collective, which serves as a national demonstration site and replicable prototype for equitable and sustainable communities, and her founding of the Academy for Global Citizenship, a public school and environmental education framework that has been scaled to impact five million children.
